We require all third parties to respect the security of your personal data and to treat it in accordance with the law. We do not allow our third-party service providers to use your personal data for their own purposes and only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

6. International transfers

We do not transfer your personal data outside the European Economic Area (EEA).

7. Data security

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal data from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered, or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to your personal data to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know. They will only process your personal data on our instructions, and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected personal data breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a breach where we are legally required to do so.

8. Data retention

We will only retain your personal data for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements.

In some circumstances we may anonymise your personal data (so that it can no longer be associated with you) for research or statistical purposes in which case we may use this information indefinitely without further notice to you.

9. Your legal rights

Under certain circumstances, you have rights under data protection laws in relation to your personal data. Details of these rights are set out below:

You may request access to your personal data (commonly known as a “data subject access request”). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal data we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it.

You may request correction of the personal data that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate data we hold about you corrected, though we may need to verify the accuracy of the new data you provide to us.

You may request erasure of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal data where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal data where you have successfully exercised your right to object to processing (see below), where we may have processed your information unlawfully or where we are required to erase your personal data to comply with local law. Note, however, that we may not always be able to comply with your request of erasure for specific legal reasons which will be notified to you, if applicable, at the time of your request.

You may object to processing of your personal data where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground as you feel it impacts on your fundamental rights and freedoms. You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal data for direct marketing purposes. In some cases, we may demonstrate that we have compelling legitimate grounds to process your information which override your rights and freedoms.

You may request restriction of processing of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of your personal data in the following scenarios: (a) if you want us to establish the data's accuracy; (b) where our use of the data is unlawful but you do not want us to erase it; (c) where you need us to hold the data even if we no longer require it as you need it to establish, exercise or defend legal claims; or (d) you have objected to our use of your data but we need to verify whether we have overriding legitimate grounds to use it.

You may request the transfer of your personal data to you or to a third party. We will provide to you, or a third party you have chosen, your personal data in a structured, commonly used, machine-readable format. Note that this right only applies to automated information which you initially provided consent for us to use or where we used the information to perform a contract with you.

You may withdraw consent at any time where we are relying on consent to process your personal data. However, this will not affect the lawfulness of any processing carried out before you withdraw your consent. If you withdraw your consent, we may not be able to provide certain products or services to you. We will advise you if this is the case at the time you withdraw your consent.

If you wish to exercise any of the rights set out above, please contact us.

9.1 No fee usually required

You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal data (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request is clearly unfounded, repetitive, or excessive. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with your request in these circumstances.

9.2 What we may need from you

We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access your personal data (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is a security measure to ensure that personal data is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it. We may also contact you to ask you for further information in relation to your request to speed up our response.

9.3 Time limit to respond

We try to respond to all legitimate requests within one month. Occasionally it may take us longer than a month if your request is particularly complex or you have made several requests. In this case, we will notify you and keep you updated.

Amendments to the Privacy Policy

Any changes made to our privacy policy will be posted on this page and where appropriate, notified to you by email. Please check back frequently to see any updates or changes to our privacy policy.

5.4 We will assign you a purchase reference to every Order. It will help us if you can tell us the purchase reference whenever you contact us about your Order.

6. Our Goods

6.1 The images of the Goods on our website are for illustrative purposes only. Although we have made every effort to display the colours accurately, we cannot guarantee that a device's display of the colours accurately reflects the colour of the Goods. Your Goods may vary slightly from those images.

6.2 The packaging of the Goods may vary from that shown in images on our Website.

7. Price and Payment

7.1 The price of any Goods will be as quoted on the Website from time to time, except in cases of obvious error.

7.2 These prices include VAT but exclude delivery costs for Goods, which will be added to the total amount due and will be displayed on our Website.

7.3 Prices are liable to change at any time, but changes will not affect Orders in respect of which we have already sent you a confirmatory e-mail in terms of Clause 5.2.

7.4 It is always possible that, despite our best efforts, some of the Goods listed on the Website may be incorrectly priced. We will normally verify prices as part of our dispatch procedures so that, where the correct price of any Goods is less than our stated price, we will charge the lower amount when dispatching the Goods to you. If the correct price of Goods is higher than the price stated on the Website, we will normally, at our discretion, either contact you for instructions before dispatching the Goods, or reject your Order and notify you of such rejection.

7.5 We are under no obligation to provide the Goods to you at the incorrect (lower) price, even after we have sent you a confirmatory e-mail in terms of Clause 5.2 above, if the pricing error is obvious and unmistakable and could have reasonably been recognised by you as a mispricing.

- 7.6 Payments via the Website can be made by credit or debit card. All card transactions are processed through a third-party payment gateway. Please note that your card details are never stored on our server.
- 7.7 All credit/debit card payments are subject to validation checks and authorisations by the card issuer. If the issuer of your payment card refuses to or does not for any reason authorise payment to us, we will not accept your Order in accordance with Clause 5.3.

8. Our Rights to Make Changes

- 8.1 We may change any Goods:
- (a) to reflect changes in relevant laws or regulatory requirements; and
 - (b) to implement minor technical adjustments and improvements.

9. Providing the Goods

- 9.1 The cost of delivery will be as displayed to you on our Website.
- 9.2 We will deliver the Goods to you as soon as reasonably possible and in any event within 30 days after the day on which we accept your Order.
- 9.3 We are not responsible for delays outside our control. If our supply of the Goods is delayed by an event outside our control, then we will contact you as soon as possible to let you know and we will take steps to minimise the effect of the delay. Provided we do this we will not be liable for delays caused by the event, but if there is a risk of substantial delay you may contact us to end the contract and receive a refund for any Goods you have paid for but not received.
- 9.4 If you are not home when delivery is attempted, you will be notified by our delivery provider of the delivery and should make arrangements to have your Order re-delivered at a convenience time.

- 9.5 The goods become your responsibility from the time we deliver the product to the address you gave us.
- 9.6 The Goods will be at your risk from the time of delivery to you. Ownership of the Goods will only pass to you when we receive full payment of all sums due in respect of the Goods, including delivery charges.
- 9.7 If you wish to order Goods for delivery outside the UK, please contact us at info@scranandscallie.com for delivery options. Such Goods may be subject to import duties and taxes which are levied when the delivery reaches the specified destination. You will be responsible for payment of any such import duties and taxes. Please note that we have no control over these charges and cannot predict their amount. Please contact your local customs office for further information before placing your order.
- 9.7 We may have to suspend the supply of Goods to:
- (a) deal with technical problems or make minor technical changes;
 - (b) update the product to reflect changes in the relevant laws and regulatory requirements.
- 9.8 Please also note that you must comply with all applicable laws and regulations of the country for which the Goods are destined. We will not be liable for any breach by you of any such laws.

10. Our Refunds Policy

- 10.1 Orders can be cancelled up to 14 working days after the day on which you received the Goods. If you wish to cancel an order you can do so by contacting us as info@scranandscallie.com. Notification that your Order has been cancelled will be sent to your email address.
- 10.2 Refunds will only be given where cancelled Goods are returned to us undamaged and unused within 14 working days of cancellation, along with the original packaging. Subject to paragraph 10.3 below, you will be liable for the costs of returning cancelled Goods. Refunds will be made within 14 working days after cancellation. Any Orders cancelled after the period referred to in Clause 10.1 above or in respect of which the Goods are not returned within 14 working days of cancellation in terms of this Clause 10.2, will not be eligible for a refund.

- 10.3 We will refund the costs of returning any Goods which are faulty or damaged, or any Goods which are offered as a substitute to that Order. The cost of returning any Goods will generally be refunded within 14 days of us receiving the Goods.

- 11.1 We will use the personal information you provide to us:

11.1.1 to supply the Goods to you;

11.1.2 if you agree to this during the order process, to give you information about similar products that we provide, but you may stop receiving this at any time by contacting us.

- 11.2 We will only give your personal information to third parties where the law either requires or allows us to do so, unless you have consented to such transfer at the time of our collection of your information.

- 11.3 We will only use your personal information as in accordance with our Privacy Policy.

- 12.2 A Force Majeure Event includes any act, event, non-happening, omission, or accident beyond our reasonable control and includes (without limitation) the following: -

12.2.1 strikes, lockouts or other industrial action;

- 12.2.2 civil commotion, riot, invasion, terrorist attack or threat of terrorist attack, war (whether declared or not) or threat or preparation for war;
 - 12.2.3 fire, explosion, storm, flood, earthquake, subsidence, epidemic or other natural disaster;
 - 12.2.4 impossibility of the use of railways, shipping, aircraft, motor transport or other means of public or private transport;
 - 12.2.5 impossibility of the use of public or private telecommunications networks;
 - 12.2.6 the acts, decrees, legislation, regulations, or restrictions of any government.
- 12.3 Our performance under any contract with you is deemed to be suspended for the period that the Force Majeure Event continues, and we will have an extension of time for performance for the duration of that period. We will use our reasonable endeavours to bring the Force Majeure Event to a close or to find a solution by which our obligations under the contract may be performed despite the Force Majeure Event.

- 14.3 Even if we delay in enforcing this contract, we can still enforce it later. If we do not insist immediately that you do anything you are required to do under these terms, or if we delay in taking steps against you in respect of your breaking this contract, that will not mean that you do not have to do those things and it will not prevent us taking steps against you at a later date.
- 14.4 The contract between us and you for the purchase of the Goods shall be concluded in English only. We will not retain a copy of the version of the terms and conditions you have agreed to in relation to the purchase of any Goods.
